1. Certificate/s showing date when Foreign citizenship/s was/were acquired by Registration or Naturalization.
2. Current Passport/s.
3. Identity Card (If applicable).
4. Documentary evidence to show that you have resided abroad for an aggregate period of at least six (6) years. Primarily such evidence should be the current and/or previous passports. Photocopies of the page/s containing details and date-stamps should be submitted (copies of unused pages are not required).

Other documents are, however, also acceptable such as:

- a residence certificate issued by the Immigration Authorities;
 - a statement showing annual earnings;
 - a letter from present/previous employer/s giving employment history;
 - a confirmation of annual Social Security contributions;
 - a confirmation of school/ college attendance.
5. The documents indicated hereunder are also required in connection with your enquiry. In this regard please note that in view that the Department does not require that you produce civil status certificates issued by the Public Registry of Malta, you are kindly requested, instead, to fill in the relative details in the attached form. Please note further that you are still required to produce copies of those certificates issued by Foreign authorities.
 - your Full Birth Certificate
 - your Father’s Birth Certificate
 - your Parents’ Marriage Certificate
 - your own Marriage Certificate
 - your Paternal Grandfather’s Birth Certificate
 - your Paternal Grandparents’ Marriage Certificate
 6. Persons born abroad during the period 21/9/1964 – 31/7/1989 are requested to produce evidence that at the time of their birth their father was a citizen of Malta; such evidence could be the Maltese passport held by the father at that time or else a copy of his certificate of acquisition of a foreign citizenship.
